MEMORANDUM

TO: Chief of Investigations Woodrow Hiers

FROM: Special Agent Supervisor Kenneth W. Moore

SUBJECT: Major Clovis Watson, Jr.

On Monday, April 17, 2000, Special Agent Supervisor Kenneth Moore was contacted by Chief Jernigan and Major Clovis Watson of the Alachua Police Department in Alachua, Florida reference anonymous letters being sent to numerous places and agencies in North Central Florida.

Major Watson stated that he had received numerous e-mails, letters and messages on his answering machine in his office at the Alachua Police Department. Chief Jernigan stated that he was not conducting an internal review but would like for the Florida Department of Law Enforcement to conduct an investigation for stalking by a female who Major Watson said was the perpetrator. At this time Chief Jernigan and Major Watson was advised that harassment did not meet the Florida Department of Law Enforcement's threshold for investigations, but I did provide other options available to Major Watson. Due to the fact that Major Watson had a relationship with this female for approximately two years, it appeared that his was a case of her not wanting to break off the relationship. Major Watson states that he met her in Miami and has never been intimate with her during the time he has known her.

Major Watson was then advised to speak with the other agencies in the area reference the letters and initiate some sort of restraining order against her. Due to the fact that she has been previously arrested in Tallahassee for harassing telephone calls, a restraining order should be granted in Gainesville and South Florida. The second option was to work with BellSouth security and initiate charges through the State Attorney's Office for harassing telephone calls. These were suggestions to Major Watson and Chief Jernigan after reviewing numerous letters and listening to some tap recordings of telephone messages.

Future assistance by the Florida Department of Law Enforcement was offered in South Florida if Major Watson decided to travel to Miami to talk to the State Attorney's Office reference charges or a restraining order.

Subsequent checks with Major Watson revealed that he intends to proceed with obtaining a restraining order first then if the letters and telephone calls persist, he would pursue harassment changes.

On May 18, 2000, Special Agent Supervisor Kenneth Moore met with Major Clovis Watson at the Alachua Police Department reference letters being mailed in an attempt to discredit Major Watson. During the meeting, Major Watson stated that his office was conducting an investigation along with the Eighth Circuit State Attorney's Office and arrest warrants are issued charging Cheryl Kendricks, a black female, of Miami with stalking and extortion.

Attached are three letters received by the Florida Department of Law Enforcement's Gainesville Field office from the Alachua Police Department and Commissioner Tim Moore's office, along with copies of the complaints and arrest warrant.

Dear Commissioner Moore:

For the last several weeks, there have been numerous letters sent to various governmental agencies alleging misconduct against Major Clovis Watson Jr., from a person indicating that they want to remain anonymous. We have identified who this anonymous person is. This letter is being sent to you to inform you that the allegations are false.

The individual that is responsible for sending these letters has a history of harassment and stalking, and is now doing the same thing to Major Watson. It appears that this individual is trying to tarnish his character. I have requested that the State Attorney's Office where this individual resides, investigate the source of these false allegations, and charges be filed appropriately. I would request that if you receive any letters pertaining to Major Clovis Watson Jr., that you forward them to me.

If you have any questions or concerns regarding this matter, please feel free to call me at 904-462-1396.

Sincerely,

Robert Jernigan

This is in reference to Deputy Chief of Police, Clovis Watson. He works for the Alachua Police Department. Please note attached letter to Chief Jernigan.
I feel this matter is extremely important. Deputy Watson is an official of the law and the activity he is engaging in may cause someone to break the law. Someone needs to point out to him how his action may take place on his private time, but how these matters effect the lives of others.

I have also forwarded this letter to the Mayors Office of both Gainesville and Alachua, the States Attorneys' Office, the commissioners of each city, and various people within the community.
I realize unless I make myself known, charges cannot be brought against Mr. Watson. However, I feel and hope these actions will force him to seek professional help for his problems. He is abusive both mentally and physically and is extremely immature. His actions has harmed many people. He does not seem to care how his actions and treatment of others effects them. I want to make the community aware of the type of person "in charge of the law".

Please take whatever actions necessary to protect my rights and the rights of other young women involved.

It has been brought to my attention that Mr. Watson has taken nude pictures of various ladies and uses this as means of control with threats to expose the photos.

Dear Chief Jernigan:

I would like to place an anonymous complaint against Deputy Chief of Police, Clovis Watson. The complaint is based on the personal misconduct and abuses I have suffered due to actions taken by Clovis Watson. I would like to remain anonymous as I fear physical retaliation from Mr. Watson.

Mr. Watson has abused me both mentally and physically, as well as other women in his past and woman that he is now associated with. Clovis Watson and I have had a consenting sexual relationship for many years. However, on the last few occasions he has forced me to have anal sex with him and he has repeatedly forced his penis into my mouth almost choking me without my consent. These actions have resulted in repeat doctors visits for anal bleeding, missed days at work (as work as I was unable to sit), and mental distress. I let Mr. Watson know this was unacceptable. He warned if I reported this no one would believe me because I had consensual sex with him. He also stated that he was the police, so who would I report it too. I feel I have no where to turn except to these action I am about to take.

Mr. Watson has also inflicted mental abuse on me and others. He feels there will be no punishment for these actions. He has made a marriage proposal to Carla Banks of WCJB TV20. (He convinced her to take a cut in pay and relocate to Gainesville, with a promise of marriage which has not taken place). One month prior to this he proposed marriage to me too. I recently founded out days after his marriage proposal to Ms. Banks he also proposed a one on one relationship to another young woman under the pretense that he was unattached. There are rumors that another woman is currently pregnant from him and his reaction is to ignore and reject her. Facts say that Mr. Watson currently has 5 illegitimate Children and rumor says more. Mr. Watson needs professional help. Clovis Watson is a public official and needs to be held accountable for his actions. This actions have been CRUEL and immature. He is ruining the lives of innocent people. He seems to suffer from a condition know has Narcissism.

To be certain this is not swept under the "rug" as Mr. Watson suggest it would be, I am forwarding this information to various media and newspapers within the community. I am sorry to take this route, however, I see no other way to protect myself and others from Mr. Watsons' cruel and insensitive actions.

Dear Commissioner Moore:

Several weeks ago, I sent you a letter about a person who was sending letters to governmental agencies and area businesses alleging misconduct against Major Clovis Watson Jr.

Detective Sergeant Glenn Hammond was assigned this case and was working on this under the direction of the State Attorney's Office of the Eighth Judicial Circuit. The individual that is responsible for these letters was identified. The allegations that the individual had stated were false. The individual identified has been charged criminally with two crimes pertaining to this incident. The charges include one count of extortion and one count of stalking. This individual had sent countless letters, e-mails and telephone calls stating her intentions to ruin the career of Major Watson.

If there are any questions pertaining to this incident or if any additional mail is received from this individual, please contact Detective Sergeant Glenn Hammond.

Sincerely,

Robert E. Jernigan
